STUDIO POLICIES

Attendance:

Students must attend class on a regular basis to help them reach their fullest potential and growth . At the end of the dance year, each student is invited to participate in our annual recital. Recital is mandatory, If you are unable to do the recital for circumstances beyond your control the student will still enjoy learning the dance and participating in the technical skillsets taught in their weekly class/classes .

If a dancer misses more than one class in the last month before the recital, the teacher may pull them from the routine unless special permission has been given.

Class Minimum:

Classes that drop below the minimum of four students required may be subject to cancellation. If a class is cancelled we will do our best to find a replacement class for you.

Etiquette:

There is no food or drink allowed in the dance rooms and cell phones are NOT allowed in class. Excessive Talking or poor behavior is not tolerated.

Please have your dancers store their belongings on shelves, cubbies or if on the team in team lockers to clear the hallways for safety reasons.

NO going into the studios when the faculty is not present for safety reasons. Please do not touch any Aerial Arts equipment unsupervised.

Class Placement:

The faculty of AGDco. will place each student in the proper classes for them to best excel. If a student is not in the correct class, they will be moved to their correct level. All Team schedules need to be signed off and approved by Ashley Grimes.

Registration:

We have ongoing registration however, if a student joins after February, they might not be able to participate in the June recital as the costume may not arrive in time.

Recital fees :

The Recital informational packet with the recital venue, date, dress rehearsal information and associated fees will be emailed and put on the studio board shortly after fall session begins.

Studio Holidays/Weather :

We will follow the same holiday schedule as the Hillsborough County School system with some exceptions. There is no adjustment in tuition for absences or holidays. In the event of inclement weather situations such as tropical storms and hurricanes AGDco. will notify parents via email and social media including IG and FB if we will need to close due to safety reasons for our families. A student is welcome to take a make-up class in their level in this circumstance .

Studio Closures:

AGDco. will be closed on the following dates: Labor Day, Halloween, Veterans Day, Thanksgiving Holiday, Winter Break, Martin Luther King Day, Presidents' Day, Spring Break, Memorial Day, and the 4th of July.

DRESS CODE

The dress code is posted online to give you an idea of what is required , in addition a handout will be given to your dancers the first day of class with their expectations for hair, tights, dance wear and proper foot wear for each class. If you have further questions please do not hesitate to speak with the instructor, call, or Email the studio. There is to be NO jewelry in class besides stud earrings for safety reasons!
